

National Service Scheme, Goalpara College

Goalpara, PIN-783101, Assam

Basic Life Support Training programme

Date: 26/08/2022

Report:

A training programme on Basic Life Support was organized by Health Cell, Red Ribbon Club and National Service Scheme, Goalpara College Unit under the initiative of Ayursundra Super specialty Hospital, Guwahati, Assam on 26th August, 2022 at the Conference Hall of Goalpara College. Chief Executive Officer Mr. Manoj Kumar Deka, Medical Superintendent Dr Pranab Barua, Joint Medical Superintendent Dr Prerit Sharma, General Manager Mr. Satyabrat Barua along with other paramedical staff of Aursundra Super specialty Hospital were present in this training programme as Resource Person. Dr. Pranab Barua and Dr Prerit Sharma delivered Hands on demonstration on the life support processes like Cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) in emergency situation. The programme was inaugurated by the Principal, Goalpara College, Dr. Subhash Barman. A certificate of appreciation was handed over to Principal, Goalpara College by the hospital authority for organizing such important event at Goalpara College. More than 300 students, Teachers and volunteers participated in this training program.

Jugabrat Das

(Dr. Jugabrat Das)

Programme Officer, NSS
Goalpara College Unit