

National Service Scheme, Goalpara College

Goalpara, PIN-783101, Assam

Martyrs' Day, 2022 (Popular Talk on Gandhian Philosophy of Sarvodaya)

Date: 30/01/2022

Report:

Goalpara College NSS Unit in collaboration with Gauhati University NSS Cell organized a virtual popular talk on “Gandhian Philosophy of Sarvodaya” on the occasion of Martyrs’ Day, 2022 on 30th January 2022. The Programme was inaugurated by Dr. Subhash Barman, Principal, Goalpara College. In his lecture, he mentioned that everyone should follow the path of Mahatma Gandhi and NSS Volunteers should carry forward the Gandhian philosophy to the society. Dr. Ranjan Kumar Kakati, Director of Students’ Welfare & Programme Coordinator, Gauhati University NSS Cell was present in this event as Chief Guest. He highlighted the Gandhian principles and the great contributions of Mahatma Gandhi to the people of India through non-violence. Dr. Kakati further mentioned that Gandhi put forward four main goals: swaraj, non-violence, swadeshi and Sarvodaya before youth for humanity. The popular talk on the topic was delivered by the invited speaker Dr. Hemanta Kumar Kalita, HoD & Associate Professor, Department of Philosophy of Goalpara College, Goalpara. Dr. Kalita said that Sarvodaya is a term meaning “Universal Uplift” or “Progress of All”, which was first coined by Mahatma Gandhi and Gandhi used the ideal of his own political philosophy for overall growth of Indian people through social, political and economic programmes. Dr. Jugabrat Das, Programme Officer of Goalpara College NSS Unit was the moderator of the programme. At the end of the meeting, Miss Asifa Mehejebin Hussain offered the vote of thanks to all the participant and distinguished guest present in the programme. The programme was attended by around 200 volunteers from various NSS units under Gauhati University NSS Cell along with Programme Officers and College Professors.

Programme Photos:

