Organized by: Department of Political science
Goalpara College
From 1st November 2019 to 18th November 2019
Duration- 30 hours (15 Days)

The political science department of Goalpara college in collaboration with IQAC, Goalpara college organised a certificate course on Human rights from 1st November 2019 to 18th November 2019. The course was all about human rights which create equality among all citizens irrespective of the differences such as caste, religion, gender, race etc. These rights are fundamental to all citizens and are given under the constitution of India. Course is briefly designed into two parts. The Part one is about national and international perspective of Human Rights. The part two is about special issues relating to violation of human rights. Total 182 students mostly from Political science and Sociology department joined the course.

Course Objectives and outcomes

The course was designed to impart knowledge and practical ability about the rights and directive principles that are provided to all citizens of India. The certificate course consisted of areas such as evolution of Human Rights, Concepts of Human Rights and Concerns of Human rights etc. In the course, students were given information not only about the history of human rights but also on modern human rights as well.

Now a days a lot of value and importance is given to human rights and their rightful enforcement. The career opportunity is also rising day by day in this field. After completing this certificate course students will be able to work in different NGO's working on the field of Social Service. Further the course will encourage students to serve the society.
