Anti- Ragging Policy

As per UGC regulations on curbing the hazard of ragging in higher educational institutions, 2009, the college is committed to keep the campus ragging free.

1. As per the UGC ragging regulations, 2009, state and central government directives, anti- ragging undertakings from students and parents are to be collected at the admission, itself making them aware of the consequences of its violation.
2. Considering ragging as a cognizable offence, all the provisions of central and state government acts are to be carefully followed.
3. An anti-ragging cell is to be constituted by the college principal which has to work under his/her direct supervision.
4. On receipt of ragging complaint by the Anti-ragging cell, the college has to seriously deal with such cases as per the university regulations which may include reporting and registering it at the nearest police station.
5. Strict vigilance on student activities during the admission period and at the beginning of the academic year is to be maintained.
6. Counseling facility to be provided by the Anti-ragging cell or by professional counselors, if required. Their reports to be submitted to the college principal regularly.
7. The faculty members to be directed to identify potential violators and

- susceptible victims by their visible stress and tension. Such cases to be informed to the college anti- ragging cell for quick disposal of solution.
8. On receiving any ragging related instructions, information from central, state, UGC and court orders, the college anti-ragging cell to update the stake holders regularly.
  9. At the beginning of the academic year, special sessions may be arranged for new college students to prepare them for their socio-academic life in the campus.
  10. The location in the college campus with higher possibility of ragging is to be identified and such locations must be under constant vigil and watch.
  11. The college has to take steps for active participation of maximum students in cultural festivals and other academic activities so that the difference of senior and junior is automatically reduced.
  12. The anti-ragging policy of the college is to be clearly displayed on the college website as well as in college campus and also included in the college prospectus and mentioned in the admission related documents.
  13. The college anti-ragging cell may be supplemented with faculty squad, if needed, for deputation at vulnerable locations and times.
  14. The anti-ragging cell has to ensure sensitization of parents about the rights and safety of their children by leveraging the opportunities when they are likely to meet and interact and if needed, special sessions may be conducted.

The Anti Ragging Policy of the college approved by the 48 Meeting held on 7/12/2019
